12.6 No fee shall be charged by the Company in respect of the registration of any instrument of transfer, probate, letters of administration, certificate of marriage or death, power of attorney or other document relating to or affecting the title to any Share.

12.7 In respect of any allotment of any Share the Directors shall have the same right to decline to approve the registration of any renounee of any allottee as if the application to allot and the renunciation were a transfer of a Share under these Articles.

12.8 Notwithstanding the foregoing (transfer restrictions), in the case of any Shares that are listed for trading on an EU regulated market or multilateral trading facility and/or admitted for settlement through any Uncertificated System, the Directors will not be permitted to decline to register or recognise any transfer of such Shares if the refusal to register or recognise such transfer would not be permitted by the listing rules of such EU regulated market or multilateral trading facility or Uncertificated System, through which such Shares then trade and settle.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

13.1 In the case of the death of a Member the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder and the executors or administrators of the deceased where he was a sole or only surviving holder shall be the only persons recognised by the Company having any title to his interest in the Shares but nothing in this Article shall release estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any Share which had been jointly held by him.

another person registered he shall testify his election by an instrument of transfer of the Share in favour of that person. All the limitations restrictions and provisions of these Articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of Shares shall be applicable to any such notice or instrument of transfer as aforesaid as if it were an instrument of transfer executed by the Member and the death bankruptcy or incapacity of the Member had not occurred.

13.4 A person becoming entitled to a Share by reason of the death bankruptcy or incapacity of a Member shall be entitled to the same Dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the holder of the Share except that he shall not before being registered as the holder of the Share be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company provided always that the Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the Share and if the notice is not complied with within one month such person shall be deemed to have so elected to be registered himself and all the restrictions on the transfer and transmission of Shares contained in these Articles shall apply to such election.

GENERAL MEETINGS

14.1 The Company shall in each calendar year hold a general meeting as its annual meeting. Not more than eighteen months shall elapse between the date of one such general meeting of the Company and that of the next. Annual general meetings shall be held once in each year at such time and place as may be determined by the Directors.

14.2 The above mentioned general meeting shall be called the "Annual General Meeting". All other general meetings shall be called "Extraordinary General Meetings".

14.3 The Directors may whenever they think fit, and upon a requisition of a Member or Members together holding not less than ten per cent. of the Voting Rights of the Company at such time the Directors shall, forthwith proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting for a date not later than two months after the receipt of the requisition. 14.4 At any Extraordinary General Meeting called pursuant to a requisition unless such meeting is called by the Directors no business other than that stated in the requisition as the objects of the meeting shall be transacted.

CLASS MEETINGS

15.1 Save as is provided in this Article and otherwise in these Articles all the provisions of these Articles and of the Law relating to general meetings of the Company and to the proceedings thereat shall apply mutatis mutandis to every class meeting. At any class meeting the holders of Shares of the relevant class shall on a poll have one vote in respect of each Share of that class held by each of them.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

16.1 At least fourteen clear days' notice shall be given of every general meeting.

16.2 A meeting of the Company shall notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in Article 16.1 hereof be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:

- 16.2.1 in the case of an Annual General Meeting by all the Members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- 16.2.2 in the case of any other meeting by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting being a majority together holding not less than ninety per cent. of the voting rights that are capable of exercise at the meeting.
- 16.3 Every notice shall specify the place the day and the time of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted and in the case of an Annual General Meeting shall specify the meeting as such.
- 16.4 Subject to the provisions of these Articles and to any restrictions imposed on any Shares notice of every meeting shall be given to all the Members, to all persons entitled to a Share in consequence of the death bankruptcy or incapacity of a Member, to the Directors and the Auditors.
- 16.5 In every notice calling a meeting of the Company there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a Member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote instead of him and that a proxy need not also be a Member.
- 16.6 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 17.1 The Directors shall convene and the Company shall hold Annual General Meetings in accordance with the requirements of the Law.
- 17.2 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting except the adjournment of the meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Such quorum shall consist of not less than two Members present in person but so that not less than two individuals will constitute the quorum provided that if at anytime all of the issued Shares in the Company are held by or by a nominee for a holding company such quorum shall consist of the Member present in person.
- 17.3.1 The Directors may, for the purpose of facilitating the organisation and administration of any meeting, direct that the meeting shall be held at two or more locations (specifying them). If they do so, they shall also make such arrangements as they shall in their absolute discretion consider appropriate (whether involving the issue of tickets or otherwise) designed (a) to ensure that all Members wishing to attend the meeting can do so at some location; and (b) to ensure that all persons attending the meeting are able to participate in the business of the meeting and to see and hear anyone else addressing the meeting; but (c) to restrict the numbers of Members at any one location to such number as can safely and conveniently be accommodated there. The entitlement of any Member to attend such a meeting shall be subject to any such arrangements then in force and stated by the notice of meeting or adjourned meeting to apply to the meeting.
- 17.3.2 For the purposes of all other provisions of these Articles any meeting taking place at two or more locations shall be treated as taking place where the chairman of the meeting presides, and as being attended there by all Members who are present there or at one of the other locations.
- 17.3.3 Under no circumstances will a failure (for any reason) of communication equipment, or any other failure in the arrangements for participation in the meeting at more than one place, affect the validity of such meeting, or any business conducted thereat, or any action taken pursuant thereto.

17.3.4 A person (a “Subsidiary Chairman”) appointed by the Directors shall preside at each location other than where the chairman of the meeting is presiding. Every Subsidiary Chairman shall carry out all requests made of him by the chairman of the meeting, shall keep good order at that location and shall have all powers necessary or desirable for such purposes.

17.4 If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present or if during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other time and place as the Directors shall determine and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half-an-hour from the time appointed for the holding of the meeting those Members present in person shall constitute a quorum.

17.5 The chairman (if any) of the Directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Company or if there is no such chairman or if he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act the Directors shall select one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

17.6 If at any meeting no Director is willing to act as chairman or if no Director is present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting the Members present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

17.7.1 With the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, the chairman of the meeting may (and if so directed by the meeting shall) adjourn the meeting from time to time or sine die and from place to place. In addition, the chairman may adjourn the meeting to another time and place without such consent (whether or not it has commenced or a quorum is present) if it appears to him that any of the following may be the case:

- (i) it is likely to be impracticable to hold or continue that meeting because of the number of Members wishing to attend who are not present; or
- (ii) the unruly conduct of persons attending the meeting prevents or is likely to prevent the orderly continuation of the business of the meeting; or
- (iii) in light of any new or additional information or circumstances relevant to the matters being considered at the meeting becoming known, an adjournment is necessary or desirable to allow Members an opportunity to assess that information or those circumstances before voting; or
- (iv) an adjournment is otherwise necessary or desirable so that the business of the meeting may be properly conducted, notwithstanding that by reason of such adjournment some Members may be unable to be present at the adjourned meeting. Any such Member may nevertheless appoint a proxy for the adjourned meeting in accordance with Article 18.

17.7.2 Nothing in this Article 17.7 shall limit any other power vested in the chairman to adjourn the meeting.

17.7.3 Whenever a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, at least seven clear days’ notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in any manner in which notice of a meeting may lawfully be given for the time being but otherwise no person shall be entitled to any notice of any adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

17.7.4 No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

17.8 At any general meeting all resolutions put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a poll.

17.9 The poll shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the chairman directs and the results of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

17.10 In the event of an equality of votes at any general meeting the chairman shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote.

17.11 A resolution in writing (including a Special Resolution but excluding a resolution removing an Auditor) signed by all Members who would be entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at a general meeting at which such a resolution would be proposed or by their duly appointed attorneys shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a general meeting of the Company duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in the like form each signed by one or more of the Members or their attorneys and signature in the case of a corporate body which is a Member shall be sufficient if made by a director or other duly authorised officer thereof or its duly appointed attorney.

17.12 The Directors may, both prior to and during any general meeting, make any arrangements and impose any restrictions which they consider appropriate to ensure the security and/or the orderly conduct of any such general meeting, including, without limitation, arranging for any person attending any such meeting to be searched, for items of personal property which may be taken into any such meeting to be restricted and for any person (whether or not a Member of the Company) who refuses to comply with any such arrangements or restrictions to be refused entry to or excluded from any such meeting.

17.13 The chairman of any general meeting of the Company shall take such action as he thinks fit to promote the orderly conduct of the business of the meeting as laid down in the notice of the meeting, including, without limitation, asking any person or persons (whether or not a Member or Members of the Company) to leave the meeting and, if necessary, having such person or persons excluded from the meeting. The decision of the chairman on matters relating to the orderly conduct of a meeting and on any other matters of procedure or arising incidentally from the business of the meeting shall be final as shall be his determination, acting in good faith, as to whether any matter is of such nature. Nothing in this Article 17.13 shall limit any other power vested in the chairman.

17.14 The Directors may make such arrangements as they shall in their absolute discretion consider to be appropriate for any of the following purposes:

17.14.1 to regulate the level of attendance at any place specified for the holding of a general meeting or any adjournment of such a meeting; or to facilitate attendance at such meeting or adjournment, and may from time to time vary any such arrangements or make new arrangements in their place. Such arrangements may include, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the issue of tickets or the use of some random means of selection or otherwise as the Directors shall consider to be appropriate.

17.14.2 to ensure the safety of people attending at any such place; or 17.14.3

- 17.15 A general meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings shall be valid if the chairman of the meeting is satisfied that adequate facilities are available throughout the meeting to ensure that Members attending are able to:
- 17.15.1 participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened;
 - 17.15.2 hear and see all persons who speak (whether by use of microphones, loudspeakers, audio-visual communications equipment or otherwise); and
 - 17.15.3 be heard and seen by all other persons present in the same way.
- 17.16 If it appears to the chairman of the meeting that the facilities at the meeting place or at the other place or places have become inadequate for the purpose referred to in Article 17.15, then the chairman may, without the consent of the meeting, interrupt or adjourn the meeting. All business conducted at that meeting up to the time of adjournment shall be valid. The provisions of Article 17.7 shall apply to that adjournment.
- 17.17 If after the sending of notice of a general meeting but before the meeting is held, or after the adjournment of a general meeting but before the adjourned meeting is held (whether or not notice of the adjourned meeting is required), the Directors decide that it is impracticable or unreasonable to hold the meeting on the date or at the time or at the main meeting place specified in the notice calling the meeting, they may postpone the meeting to another date, time and place. When a meeting is postponed, notice of the date, time and place of the postponed meeting shall be posted on the Company's website. Save for the following provisions, no new notice of the meeting need be sent. The Directors must take reasonable steps to ensure that a Member trying to attend the meeting at the original date, time and place is informed of the new arrangements.
- 17.18 A proxy appointed in relation to a postponed meeting may, if by means of an instrument, be delivered to the office or to such other place as may be specified by or on behalf of the Company in accordance with Article 18.9 or, if contained in an electronic communication, be received at the address (if any) specified by or on behalf of the Company in accordance with Article 18.9, at any time not less than twenty four hours before any postponed time appointed for holding the meeting.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

- 18.1 Subject to any special rights restrictions or prohibitions as regards voting for the time being attached to any Shares as may be specified in the terms of issue thereof or these Articles every Member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for each Ordinary Share of which he is a holder.
- 18.2 In the case of joint holders of any Share such persons shall not have the right of voting individually in respect of such Share but shall elect one of their number to represent them and to vote whether in person or by proxy in their name. In default of such election the person whose name appears first in order in the Register in respect of such Share shall be the only person entitled to vote in respect thereof. Where there are joint Participants in respect of any Share such persons shall not have the right of voting individually in respect of such Share but shall elect one of their number to represent them and to vote whether in person or by proxy in their name. In default of such election the Participant whose interest is first notified to the Company shall alone be entitled to vote.
- 18.3 A Member in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction (whether in the Island of Jersey or elsewhere) in matters concerning legal incapacity or interdiction may vote by his attorney curator receiver or other person authorised in that behalf appointed by that court and any such attorney curator receiver or other person may vote by proxy. Evidence to the satisfaction of the Directors of the authority of such attorney curator receiver or other person may be required by the Directors prior to any vote being exercised by such attorney curator receiver or other person.

18.4 No Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of Shares in the Company of which he is holder or one of the joint holders have been paid.

18.5 No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

18.6 On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy. On a poll, a Member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

18.7 The Directors may at the expense of the Company send by post or otherwise to the Members instruments of proxy (with or without provision for their return prepaid) for use at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of Shares of the Company either in blank or nominating in the alternative any one or more of the Directors or any other persons. If for the purpose of any meeting invitations to appoint as proxy a person or one or more of a number of persons specified in the invitations are issued at the Company's expense they shall be issued to all (and not to some only) of the Members entitled to be sent a notice of the meeting and to vote thereat by proxy.

18.8 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing in any common form or as approved by the Directors and shall be under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing or if the appointor is a corporation either under seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised or (where permitted) by such electronic means as the Company may approve from time to time provided always that in the case of Shares registered in the name of an Approved Operator (which for the purposes of this Article 18 in any case includes Euroclear) or an Affiliated Institution (which for the purposes of this Article 18 in any case includes an Admitted Institution (aangesloten instelling) as defined in the WGE), a Participant may submit a written declaration to the Approved Operator or an Affiliated Institution which shall constitute an instruction appointing a proxy from the relevant registered shareholder confirming that the number of Shares mentioned in each written declaration form part of a Collective Deposit (which includes the relevant Book-Entry Deposit) and that the person mentioned in the declaration is a Participant for the mentioned number of Shares in the Collective Deposit and shall be entitled to exercise voting rights as a proxy in respect of such Shares at the relevant general meeting provided further that such Participant shall be entitled to delegate their proxy to a third party by delivering such form of proxy executed in writing or (where permitted) by such electronic means as the Company may approve from time to time. A proxy need not be a Member.

18.9 The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the Office or at such other place as is specified for that purpose by the notice convening the meeting not less than twenty four hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote and an instrument of proxy which is not deposited or delivered in a manner so required shall not be treated as valid.

18.10 Unless the contrary is stated thereon the instrument appointing a proxy shall be as valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates.

18.11 A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed provided that no notice in writing of such death insanity or revocation shall have been received by the Company at the Office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting or the taking of the poll at which the proxy is used.

CORPORATE MEMBERS

- 19.1 Any body corporate which is a Member may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of Members (or of any class of Members) and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise on behalf of the body corporate which he represents the same powers as that body corporate could exercise if it were an individual and shall be deemed to represent such body corporate in person.
- 19.2 Where a person is authorised to represent a body corporate at a general meeting of the Company the Directors or the chairman of the meeting may require him to produce a certified copy of the resolution from which he derives his authority.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

- 21.1 Any Director (other than an alternate Director) may at his sole discretion and at any time and from time to time appoint any other Director, or any other person approved by the Directors or chairman (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld) other than a person disqualified by law from being a director of a company, as an alternate Director to attend and vote in his place at any meetings of Directors at which he is not personally present provided that no person who is resident in a Fiscally Unacceptable Jurisdiction may be appointed or continue to act as an alternate Director unless his appointor is also so resident. Each Director shall be at liberty to appoint under this Article more than one alternate Director provided that only one such alternate Director may at any one time act on behalf of the Director by whom he has been appointed.

- 21.2 An alternate Director while he holds office as such shall be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of Directors and of all meetings of committees of Directors of which his appointor is a member and to attend and to exercise all the rights and privileges of his appointor at all such meetings at which his appointor is not personally present and generally to perform all the functions of his appointor as a Director in his absence.
- 21.3 An alternate Director shall ipso facto vacate office if and when his appointment expires or the Director who appointed him ceases to be a Director of the Company or removes the alternate Director from office by notice under his hand served upon the Company.

The remuneration (if any) of an alternate Director shall be payable out of the remuneration payable to the Director appointing him as may be agreed between them.

21.5 Where a Director acts as an alternate Director for another Director (or Directors) he shall be entitled to vote for such other Director(s) as well as on his own account, and each Director shall be permitted at any meeting to act as alternate Director for any number of other Directors.

21.6 A Director who is also appointed an alternate Director shall be considered as being, in addition to his own capacity as a Director, such further number of Directors as he is an alternate Director for, for the purpose of making a quorum of Directors.

22.3 The Directors may by power of attorney mandate or otherwise appoint any person to be the agent of the Company for such purposes and on such conditions as they determine including authority for the agent to delegate all or any of his powers provided that the terms on which any such agent is appointed shall include provisions that the appointee shall exercise any powers conferred upon him by these Articles outside the Fiscally Unacceptable Jurisdictions and in particular meetings at which such powers are exercised shall be held outside the Fiscally Unacceptable Jurisdictions and any decisions taken and directions given by him shall be taken and given outside the Fiscally Unacceptable Jurisdictions.

22.7 No person dealing with the Company shall by reason of the foregoing provisions be concerned to see or enquire whether the limit specified in the Articles is observed, and no debt incurred or security given in excess of such limit shall be invalid or ineffectual unless the lender or the recipient of the security had, at the time when the debt was incurred or security given, express notice that the limit hereby imposed had been or would thereby be exceeded.

- 40.2 The Company shall not take any steps permitted by Article 40.1 without the consent of the Directors.

DISCLOSURE OF INTERESTS IN SHARES

41.1 Notwithstanding the provisions of the Law, the provisions of section 793 of the UK Act 2006 shall be deemed to be incorporated into these Articles and shall bind the Company and the holders of Shares and references in such section to “a public company” shall be deemed to be references to the Company and terms used in section 793 of the UK Act 2006 shall have the meaning ascribed to them in such section.

41.2 Where notice is served by the Company under section 793 of the UK Act 2006 as incorporated into these Articles (a “section 793 notice”) on a holder of Shares, or another person whom the Company knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be interested in Shares held by that holder of Shares, and the holder of Shares or other person has failed in relation to any Shares (the “default shares”, which expression includes any Shares issued to such holder of Shares after the date of the section 793 notice in respect of those shares) to give the Company the information required within 14 days following the date of service of the section 793 notice, the Directors may serve on the holder of such default shares a notice (a “disenfranchisement notice”) whereupon the following sanctions apply, unless the Directors otherwise decides:

41.2.1 the holder of Shares and any other person interested in those Shares shall not be entitled in respect of the default shares to be present or to vote (either in person or by proxy) at a general meeting of the Company or at a separate meeting of the holders of a class of shares or on a poll or to exercise other rights conferred by membership in relation to the meeting or poll; and

41.2.2 where the default shares represent at least 0.25 per cent, in number of the issued shares of their class:

- (i) a Dividend (or any part of a Dividend) or other amount payable in respect of the default shares shall be withheld by the Company, which has no obligation to pay interest on it;
- (ii) no transfer of any of the default shares shall be registered unless:
 - (a) the transfer is an excepted transfer; or
 - (b) the holder of Shares is not himself in default in supplying the information required and the holder of Shares proves to the satisfaction of the Directors that no person in default in supplying the information required is interested in any of the Shares the subject of the transfer; or
 - (c) registration of the transfer is required by any relevant system (in which the Share is a participating security),

(and, for the purpose of ensuring this Article 41 can apply to all Shares held by the holder, the Company may, in accordance with the regulations of any relevant system, issue written notification to the operator of the relevant system requiring the conversion into certificated form of any Shares held by the holder in uncertificated form).

41.3 The sanctions under this Article 41 shall cease to apply seven days after the receipt by the Company of:

- 41.3.1 notice of registration of an excepted transfer, in relation to the default shares the subject of the excepted transfer; and
- 41.3.2 all information required by the section 793 notice, in a form satisfactory to the Directors, in relation to any default shares.
- 41.4 Where, on the basis of information obtained from a holder of Shares in respect of a Share held by him, the Company issues a section 793 notice to another person, it shall at the same time send a copy of the section 793 notice to the holder of Shares, but the accidental omission to do so, or the non-receipt by the holder of Shares of the copy, does not invalidate or otherwise affect the application of this Article 41.
- 41.5 For the purpose of this Article 41:
- 41.5.1 “interested” has the same meaning as in Part 22 of the UK Act 2006 and for the avoidance of doubt a holder of a certificate or other form of depositary receipt that relates to Shares shall be deemed to be interested in such number of Shares to which his certificate or depositary receipt refers;
- 41.5.2 reference to a person having failed to give the Company the information required by a section 793 notice, or being in default in supplying such information, includes:
- (i) reference to his having failed or refused to give all or any part of it; and
 - (ii) reference to his having given information which he knows to be false in a material particular or having recklessly given information which is false in a material particular; and
- 41.5.3 “excepted transfer” means, in relation to Shares:
- (i) a transfer pursuant to acceptance of a takeover offer for the Company (within the meaning of section 974 of the UK Act 2006); or
 - (ii) a transfer where the Directors are satisfied that the transfer is made pursuant to a bona fide sale of the whole of the beneficial ownership of the Shares to a party unconnected with the Member or with any person appearing to be interested in such Shares including any such sale made through a recognised investment exchange (as defined in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000) (being a statute in force in the UK as may be amended or reenacted from time to time) or another stock exchange outside the United Kingdom on which Shares in the capital of the Company are normally traded. For the purposes of this sub-paragraph any associate (as that term is defined in Section 435 of the UK Insolvency Act 1986 (being a statute in force in the UK as may be amended or re-enacted from time to time)) shall be included amongst the persons who are connected with the Member or any person appearing to be interested in such Shares.
- 41.6 This Article 41 is in addition to and without prejudice to the Law.

OFFERS

- 42.1 In this Article 42, the following terms and expressions have the meaning set forth below:
- “acting in concert” means actively co-operating, pursuant to an agreement or understanding (whether formal or informal), to obtain or consolidate Control of the Company;

“Control” means a holding or aggregate holdings of Securities representing 30 per cent, or more of the Voting Rights of the Company, irrespective of whether the holding or holdings gives de facto control;

“Offer” means a written offer made in accordance with Article 42.2 and 42.4 to 42.8 and may, subject to Articles 42.2 and 42.4 to 42.8, include an offer to consummate a takeover, merger or consolidation transaction, however effected, including a reverse takeover, partial offer, tender offer, court scheme (including a plan of reorganisation under insolvency or bankruptcy laws), or offer by a parent company for shares in its subsidiary;

“Offeror” has the meaning given to it in Article 42.2 and includes persons wherever organised or resident;

“Offer Period” means the period from the time when an announcement is made of a proposed or possible Offer (with or without terms) until the first closing date or, if later, the date when the Offer becomes or is declared unconditional as to acceptances or lapses. An announcement that a holding, or aggregate holdings, of Shares carrying 30 per cent, or more of the Voting Rights of the Company is for sale or that the Directors are seeking potential offers to acquire Control of the Company will be treated as the announcement of a possible Offer for the purposes of determining the applicable Offer Period;

“person” means any individual, firm, partnership, association, corporation, limited liability company, or other entity; and “public disclosure” means disclosure in a press release or in a document furnished to all shareholders.

42.2 Where any person other than the Investor Parties or any of them or their Associates with whom they are acting in concert:

42.2.1 acquires, whether by a series of transactions over a period of time or not, Securities which (taken together with Securities held or acquired by persons acting in concert with such person) represent an interest in or a right to control or direct 30 per cent, or more of the Voting Rights; or

42.2.2 together with persons acting in concert with such person, holds or has an interest in or right to control or direct not less than 30 per cent, but not more than 50 per cent, of the Voting Rights and such person, or any person acting in concert with such person, acquires additional Securities which will increase the percentage of Voting Rights in or over which such person has an interest or right of control or direction, then such person and any person acting in concert with such person (each such person referred to below as “the Offeror”) shall extend an Offer, on the basis set out in Articles 42.5 to 42.8, to the holders of all issued and outstanding Shares of the Company (other than nonvoting non-equity share capital except where this is in the form of convertible Securities of the Company) within 28 days of the occurrence of the relevant event in Article 42.2.1 or 42.2.2. Offers for different classes of Shares must be comparable. For the avoidance of doubt, the requirement to make an Offer shall not apply to the Investor Parties or any of them or their Associates with whom they are acting in concert at any time for so long as any Investor Party or its Associates with whom it is acting in concert holds any interest in the Company.

42.3 The taking of an option to acquire Securities will be deemed to constitute the acquisition of Securities giving rise to the obligation to make an Offer under Article 42.2 where the relationship and arrangements between the parties concerned is such that effective Control of the Company has passed to the taker of the option. The acquisition of Voting Rights, or general control of them, as distinct from the associated Securities itself, will be deemed to be an acquisition of the associated Securities.

- 42.4 In addition to the person specified in Article 42.2.2, the Company may require each of the principal members of a group of persons acting in concert with such person to extend an Offer on the basis set out in Articles 42.5 to 42.8.
- 42.5 In respect of any Offer(s) made under Article 42.2:
- 42.5.1 such Offer(s) must be conditional only upon the Offeror having received acceptances in respect of Securities which, together with Securities acquired or agreed to be acquired before or during the Offer, will result in the Offeror and any person acting in concert with it holding Securities representing more than 50 per cent, of the Voting Rights; and
- 42.5.2 such Offer(s) shall not be subject to any other condition including for the avoidance of doubt any condition that is dependent on the passing of a resolution at any meeting of shareholders of the Offeror or upon any other consent or arrangement.
- 42.6 An Offer must be unconditional if the Offeror holds Securities representing more than 50 per cent, of the Voting Rights before the Offer is made.
- 42.7 An Offer must, in respect of each class or series of Shares, be in cash (or be accompanied by a cash alternative) at not less than the highest price paid by the Offeror for Shares of that class or series or interests in Shares or Voting Rights during the Offer Period and within 12 months prior to its commencement. An Offer must be made in writing and publicly disclosed,
- and must be open for acceptance for a period of not less than 30 days and, if the Offer is made conditional as to acceptances and becomes or is declared unconditional as to acceptances, the Offer must remain open for not less than 14 days after the date on which it would otherwise have expired.
- 42.8 When Shares of the Company or interests in Shares or Voting Rights have been acquired for consideration other than cash in a transaction giving rise to an obligation to make an Offer under Article 42.2, the Offer must nevertheless be in cash or be accompanied by a cash alternative of at least equal value, which value must be determined by an independent valuation.
- 42.9 In calculating the price paid for Shares of the Company or interests in Shares or Voting Rights, stamp duty and broker's commission, if any, shall be excluded.
- 42.10 If Shares of the Company or interests in Shares or Voting Rights have been acquired in exchange for listed Securities in a transaction giving rise to an obligation to make an Offer under Article 42.2, the price paid for such Shares or interests in Shares or Voting Rights will be established by reference to the middle market price of such listed Securities on the applicable market on the date of such acquisition.
- 42.11 If Shares of the Company or interests in Shares or Voting Rights are admitted to trading on a market for listed Securities and have been acquired by the conversion or exercise (as applicable) of convertible Securities, warrants, options or other subscription rights, the price paid for such Shares or interests in Shares or Voting Rights will normally be established by reference to the middle market price of such Shares or interests in Shares or Voting Rights on the relevant market at the close of business on the day on which the relevant exercise or conversion notice was submitted. If, however, the convertible Securities, warrants, options or subscription rights were acquired during the Offer Period or within 12 months prior to its commencement, they will be treated as if they were purchases of the underlying Shares or interests in Shares or Voting Rights at a price equal to the sum of the purchase price of such convertible Securities, warrants, options or other subscription rights plus the relevant conversion or exercise price paid (or if such convertible Securities, warrants, options or other subscription rights have not yet been converted or exercised, the maximum conversion or exercise price payable under the relevant conversion or exercise terms).
- 42.12 If any Director (or any of his or her Associates) sells Shares or interests in Shares or Voting Rights to a purchaser as a result of which the purchaser is required to make an Offer under Article 42.2, such Director must ensure that as a condition of the sale the purchaser undertakes to fulfil its obligations under Article 42.2. In addition, such Director shall not resign from the board of Directors until the first closing date of the Offer or the date when the Offer becomes or is declared wholly unconditional, whichever is the later.

- 42.13 No Offeror or nominee of an Offeror may be appointed to the Board of Directors, nor may an Offeror exercise the Voting Rights represented by the Securities of the Company or interests in Shares or Voting Rights held by such Offeror, until public disclosure of the Offer has been made.
- 42.14 If an issue of new Securities by the Company as consideration for an acquisition or a cash subscription would otherwise result in an obligation to make an Offer under Article 42.2, the obligation may be waived by an independent vote of the shareholders of the Company not affiliated or acting in concert with the allottees of the new Securities. The requirement for an Offer under Article 42.2 may also be waived by the consent of the holders of a majority of the Voting Rights of those persons who are not the proposed allottee(s) of the relevant new Securities (nor affiliated or acting in concert with such proposed allottee(s)). If an underwriter incurs an obligation under Article 42.2 unexpectedly, for example as a result of an inability to complete a distribution of Securities of the Company, this obligation may be waived by the consent of the holders of a majority of the Voting Rights of those persons who are not the underwriter(s) (nor affiliated or acting in concert with such underwriter(s)).
- 42.15 If an Offeror shall fail to comply with Article 42.2 and Articles 42.5 to 42.8, or shall fail to comply with such Offeror's obligations under the Offer, and shall persist in such failure after written notice from the Company to such person or persons, the Directors may:
- 42.15.1 require such person or persons to provide such information as the Directors considers appropriate;
 - 42.15.2 make an award for costs against the Offeror;
 - 42.15.3 determine that some or all of such Securities or interests in Shares or Voting Rights acquired in breach of Articles 42.2 and 42.5 to 42.8 be sold;
 - 42.15.4 direct that the Offeror shall not be entitled to exercise any Voting Rights; and/or
 - 42.15.5 direct that no Dividends shall be paid in respect of all or any of the shares of the Company held by or in which the Offeror is interested.

The restrictions in Articles 42.15.4 and 42.15.5 above may be lifted at the discretion of the Directors, and shall be lifted when (i) the Shares or interests in Shares or Voting Rights subject to such restrictions are proved to the reasonable satisfaction of the Directors to have been sold to a new beneficial owner that is not affiliated or acting in concert with the Offeror, (ii) such Shares or interests in Shares or Voting Rights have been sold pursuant to an Offer made to all holders of shares of the Company on terms which do not differentiate between such holders or (iii) the provisions of this Article relating to the Offer or, as the case may be, the Offeror's obligations under the Offer, have been complied with in full.

- 42.16 If a Director is affiliated with an Offeror, he or she shall forthwith vacate his or her office if his or her resignation is requested by notice tendered at a meeting of the Directors by all other Directors who are not so affiliated. For the purposes hereof, like notices signed by each such Director shall be effective as a single notice signed by all such Directors.
- 42.17 Any secured party that (i) appropriates or otherwise acquires Securities, whether directly or indirectly, through its enforcement of security interests in those Securities or in the issued equity share capital of any body corporate that, directly or indirectly holds, those Securities, and (ii) as a result becomes obliged to extend an Offer pursuant to Article 42.2, is exempt from such obligation during the 180 days after the date on which it first becomes obliged to extend such Offer pursuant to Articles 42.2.1 or 42.2.2 (the "Disposal Period"), provided that:

42.17.1 in the case of an Offer pursuant to Article 42.2.1, (i) prior to the end of the Disposal Period, the secured party has disposed of such number of Securities as is required to ensure that its interest in, or right to control or direct, Voting Rights represents less than 30% of the Voting Rights and (ii) until such time as the secured party has disposed of such Securities or makes an Offer pursuant to Article 42, it shall only be entitled to vote in respect of up to 30% of the Voting Rights (and shall be deemed to have abstained in respect of any Voting Rights in which it is interested in excess of such threshold); and

42.17.2 in the case of an Offer pursuant to Article 42.2.2, (i) prior to the end of the Disposal Period, the secured party has disposed of such number of Securities as is required to ensure that its interest in, or right to control or direct, Voting Rights represents the same percentage as immediately prior to the day on which it became obliged to extend an Offer under Article 42.2.2 (the "Initial Voting Percentage") and (ii) until such time as the secured party has disposed of such Securities or makes an Offer pursuant to Article 42, it shall only be entitled to vote in respect of Voting Rights equal to the Initial Voting Percentage (and shall be deemed to have abstained in respect of any Voting Rights in which it is interested in excess of the Initial Voting Percentage).

42.18 If any provision of this Article 42 or any part of any such provision is held under any circumstances to be invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, then (a) such provision or part thereof shall, with respect to such circumstances and in such jurisdiction, be deemed amended to conform to applicable laws so as to be valid and enforceable to the fullest possible extent, (b) the invalidity or unenforceability of such provision or part thereof under such circumstances and in such jurisdiction shall not affect the validity or enforceability of such provision or part thereof under any other circumstances or in any other jurisdiction, and (c) the invalidity or unenforceability of such provision or part thereof shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of such provision or the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Article 42. Each provision of this Article 42 is separable from every other provision of this Article 42, and each part of each provision of this Article 42 is separable from every other part of such provision.

NON-APPLICATION OF STANDARD TABLE

43 The regulations constituting the Standard Table in the Companies (Standard Table) (Jersey) Order 1992 shall not apply to the Company and is hereby expressly excluded in its entirety.

44.1 In this Article 44, the following terms and expressions have the meaning set forth below:

"Affiliates" means, in relation to a specified person, any person directly or indirectly Controlling, Controlled by or under direct or indirect common Control with the specified

44.2 Subject to the Articles and the Law, the Company shall not take any action in respect of the matters set out in this Article (the “Shareholder Reserved Matters”) unless:

44.2.1 either;

- (i) the Members have passed a Special Resolution at a general meeting of the Company; or
- (ii) Members holding at least two-thirds of the Voting Rights have given their written consent.

44.3 Subject to the Articles and the Law, if the Members approve a Shareholder Reserved Matter, the matter shall be referred to the Company for implementation.

44.4 The Shareholder Reserved Matters are:

44.4.1 any material change in the business of any Group Company, which is to own, manage and develop real estate assets (and any ancillary activities in connection therewith); and

44.4.2 the issue of any securities by the Company or the issue of any securities by any other Group Company, save for:

- (i) any issue of securities pursuant to an employee share option plan of the Company from time to time and at any time approved by shareholders;
